Burk N. Ashford,
Plaintiff

vs

Goeppinger-Curran Development LLC, Thomas W. Curran, Neil W. Goeppinger, F. Virginia Goeppinger, and Does
1 to 20...,
Defendant(s)

Case No. 08 CV 0949 WQH RBB

COMPLAINT

COMPLAINT FOR
REAL ESTATE CONTRACT DEFAULT

Comes now the Plaintiff, Burk N. Ashford, who alleges that this complaint is for Default by the Defendant(s) in a Real Estate Contract executed in the County of San Diego in the State of California. Further the Plaintiff makes known that this Complaint is essentially an appeal from the Superior Court of the State of California and subsequently the Appellate Court and the California Supreme Court.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Plaintiff (Ashford) did execute a D.R.O.A. (deposit-receipt-offer-and acceptance) for a parcel of land with the Defendant(s) (Curran). Exhibit attached. Plaintiff did make known to the Defendant(s) that the property was being purchased for the purpose of

1 building a spec home and was subject to conclusion of obtaining building and 2 appurtenant permits and funding as soon as the permit process was completed.

4 It should be noted herein, that the defendant (Curran) did not disclose that he 5 was not the sole owner, nor that he possessed a real estate license or that the 6 sellers would be doing a 1031 exchange of the property or the fact that this 7 was the last parcel and the final completion for the subdivision had not been 8 applied for from the County. Further, Goeppinger-Curran Dev. LLC was not a 9 California Corporation but was an Iowa entity operating illegally in the State of 10 California presumably for evasion of California taxes and became a California
11 Corporation after suit was filed against them.
12

14 Subsequently, the permit process was halted due to the failure to obtain the 15 completion process until late September. Upon issuance of the Certificate of 16 Completion Plaintiff applied for and received a Septic Permit, and after reviews
17 and amendments to the submitted building plans, a building permit was issued 18 on or about December 15th. of that year. There were other delays due to the extreme 19 fire damage to the area. Upon agreement of all parties the closing and loan process 20 was adjourned until after the New Year. Following the New Year, Sellers 21 asked for a final date for the sale and an extension of 45 days to February 29th was 22 agreed upon and executed. During this course of events the future home was 23 purchased and went into escrow subject to completion. The original construction 24 home lender was using incoming funds for projects of preference and to accommodate 25 the purchase date an alternate stand-by investor tendered payment in full for the 26 property on behalf of Plaintiff (Ashford).
27
28

Upon tender of funds - escrow contacted the seller (Curran) who ordered escrow

1 to not accept payment. Following a patient amount of time - Plaintiff/Buyer (Ashford)
2 filed suit in the California Superior Court. Please take special notice - that in the 3 proceedings Defendant (Curran) and parties stated under oath that they had cancelled
4 the sale and escrow. However in the trial proceedings Defendants through Counsel
5 STIPULATED that escrow was never cancelled. Further - at trial Plaintiff had 6 presented evidence of phone messages from Mr. Curran and had listed such evidence 7 in his Court documents. Said messages clearly in Mr. Curran's own voice state that 8 he was delaying escrow solely due to his desire to know who the investor was and 9 what business relationship existed between Plaintiff and Investor -none of which was 10 any of his business. Plaintiffs attorney did not present this evidence at 11 trial as he felt it was part of a settlement negotiation - however the Plaintiff contends 12 this is not protected speech due to settlement, but proof of Willful default and 13 intentional Perjury and is now subject to being introduced and entered into the record.
14

15 Plaintiff has requested the Special Services Sheriff Department to obtain this 16 evidence and schedule a time to review it and has failed to do so. Ergo the 17 Plaintiff will move this Honorable Court for an order to produce the evidence.
18

19 The original assisting counsel to the Plaintiff inadvertantly left out a request for 20 Specific Performance (which is basically all the Plaintiff is seeking) in the original 21 Complaint and the amended complaint. In the ensuing Motions, substitutions, two 22 defendant Demurrers and so forth - a great deal of time was eschewed. Specifically 23 dilatory and delaying failure of the defendants to complete interrogatories to enable 24 the Plaintiff to draft and submit properly a final amended complaint which included 25 the request for Specific Performance.
26
27
28

1 It should be noted that in the filing of the Complaints, Defendant(s) through counsel
2 were dilatory in filing their answer(s) and Demurrers. Plaintiff filed for Default on 3 multiple occasions, and the clerks routinely failed to enter them and even mailed 4 them back to the Plaintiff with imaginary and false excuses.

7 Due to the approaching cut-off date for motions - Plaintiff appeared In Ex Parte
8 to file the served Amended Complaint. Within his own discretion Judge Michael Anello 9 ruled that the Filing of the Complaint was not a priority that required an immediate 10 ruling and that the Motion for the Amended Complaint would be heard in 30 days.
11 At that hearing the same Judge denied the Motion to Amend ruling that there was not 12 enough time even though the cut off date had not expired and there was no need for 13 any further discovery and so forth.
14

15 This is clearly an abuse of discretion.
16

17 At the trial the subpoenaed escrow documents and escrow personnel failed to 18 appear. The investor who tendered the funds on behalf of the Plaintiff failed to appear.
19 All of these parties admit to collusion with the defendant(s) counsel to not appear 20 and enable the plaintiff to prove his case. Counsel who appeared on behalf of the 21 Plaintiff to conduct the trial realized he did not have subpoenaed witnesses and 22 documents and moved for the case to be trailed to the next available time - he was 23 refused. This is clearly an abuse of discretion.
24

25 The investor who tendered the check on behalf of the Plaintiff did appear on 26 behalf of the Defendant(s) and inferred that he was acting as a loan agent to and for 27 the Plaintiff in the employ of a company that the Plaintiff had never heard of and 28 discredited the Plaintiff. Note that in the evidence submitted by the Defendants

1 that subsequent to tendering the funds for the property in this case, the investor
2 and the Defendants entered into a separate escrow on this property between 3 themselves - which is probably illegal and at least unethical.
4

5 An additional investor who made known he would tender payment in full was 6 denied the opportunity to testify as to how he was able to estimate the value to 7 justify the cost of the property. Such was an abuse of discretion and prejudicial 8 against the Plaintiff. Further the presiding Judge blocked introduction of crucial 9 evidence that was clearly listed as evidence and to which defense counsel did 10 state and admit that he had received such evidence, clearly this is an abuse of 11 discretion and prejudicial against the Plaintiff - further this evidence did include 12 the costs and expenses of the Plaintiff.
13

15 Following the trial, Judge Michael Anello exceeded his authority and used an 16 abuse of discretion to rule that the escrow was cancelled and that the Plaintiff had 17 no case. However, all of the defendants arguments at trial were that they were 18 solely liable for any increase in value of the property from the date of the sale to 19 the defaulted closing and did STIPULATE that escrow was never cancelled.
20
21 Motions for a dismissal and re-trial were denied. One of said Motions hearing
22 date was never served upon the Plaintiff and heard in his absence.
23

25 Subsequently - the case was appealed to the Fourth Appellate District
26 Division One which upheld the decisions and abuse of discretions of Judge 27 Michael Anello. Among some of the Appellate Court's ruling was that the 28 Plaintiff offered no cases for his arguments. Quite frankly on page ii-i of the Reply Brief - multiple cases and page references were set forth. It was presumed that the Hierarchy of the Dais were the most discerning intellectual

2 minds of the legal community and they would be able to assimilate and discern
3 the cases and apply them to the proper arguments. Apparently I was wrong 4 in that assumption. The end result is the continued abuse of discretion and 5 exceeding their authority.
6

7 A Petition for Review was then submitted to the California Supreme Court - which 8 sent a Notice to the Plaintiff that "Petition for Review is Denied". No case, law, statute 9 or other reason was given. To wit, it is evident that the Ostrich Principle is in effect.
10

11 COURT OPTIONS

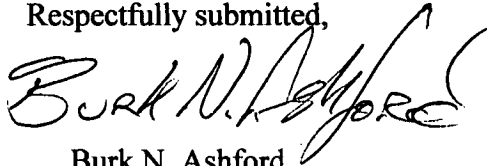

12 The Plaintiff, Burk N. Ashford, does hereby request this honorable Court to 13 intercede and rectify the Lower Courts decisions and mismanagment, abuse of 14 discretion and exceeding of authority.
15

- 16 1. The most obvious is - that this Court rule that the Review of the California 17 Supreme Court is incomplete and that they need to undertake this case for a 18 complete review and ruling prior to hearing in the Federal Court system.
19 20 2. Undertake this case from the California Court system and treat this case as any 21 other and take it to trial on the evidence, testimony as submitted by the Plaintiff
22 and the Defendant as if no trial had ever been held.
23
24 3. Review the actions of the lower Court and issue its own rulings;
25
26 a. Failure of the Defendants to timely file a response and grant a default judgment.
27 b. That the Plaintiff did timely and to the best of his ability, file and enter an amended 28 complaint adding Specific Performance, and that such complaint should be honored and accepted and a new trial granted per se.
c. That trial was prejudiced against the Plaintiff and that the trial and judgment should be set aside and dismissed.
d. That the presiding Judge and ensuing appellant panelists did exceed their authority of discretion in their rulings.

The Plaintiff, Burk N. Ashford does hereby declare subject to penalty of perjury that

1
2 all of the foregoing is true and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief. Plaintiff
3 reserves the right to amend and correct errors and/or omissions.

5 Respectfully submitted,

B. FHA APPRAISED VALUE CLAUSE. It is expressly agreed that, notwithstanding any other provisions of this contract, the Buyer shall not be obligated to complete the purchase of the property described on the front of this agreement or to incur any penalty by forfeiture of earnest money deposits or otherwise unless the Seller has delivered to the Buyer a written statement issued by the Federal Housing Commissioner setting forth the appraised value of the property for mortgage insurance purposes of not less than the amount specified as purchase price, which statement the Seller hereby agrees to deliver to the Buyer promptly after such appraised value statement is made available to the Seller. The Buyer shall, however, have the privilege and option of proceeding with the consummation of this contract without regard to the amount of the appraised valuation made by the FHA Commissioner.

The appraised valuation is arrived at to determine the maximum mortgage the Department of Housing and Urban Development will insure. HUD does not warrant the value or the condition of the property. The Buyer should satisfy himself/herself that the price and condition of the property are acceptable.

C. SPECIAL STUDIES ZONE DISCLOSURE. The property is situated in a Special Studies Zone as designated under Sections 2621-2625, inclusive, of the California Public Resources Code, and, as such, construction or development of any structure for human occupancy may require the submission of a favorable geological report by a registered geologist, unless such report is waived by the City or County under the terms of the act. No representations on the subject are made by Seller or agent. Buyer may make further independent inquiries at appropriate governmental agencies, concerning the use of the property under the terms of the Special Studies Zone Act. Buyer shall be deemed to be satisfied with the result of such inquiries unless written notice to the contrary is delivered to Seller or his agent within seven (7) days of acceptance, in which case Buyer may have his deposit returned and both parties shall be relieved of all obligations hereunder.

D. CONDOMINIUM DISCLOSURE. Buyer will take title subject to condominium declaration, covenants, conditions and restrictions, articles of incorporation, by-laws, rules and regulations currently in force, and financial statements, to be delivered to Buyer within five (5) days of acceptance. Such charges shall be credited to Buyer at close of escrow. Buyer shall be deemed to have approved said documents unless written notice to the contrary is delivered to Seller or his agent within five (5) days of receipt by Buyer. In addition, Seller shall deliver to Buyer before close of escrow a written statement from the condominium owners association documenting the amount of any delinquent assessments, including penalties, attorney's fees, and any other charges provided for in the management documents.

E. CITY AND COUNTY INSPECTIONS. According to local ordinance, a condition for sale or transfer of the property is that it must be inspected to make sure it complies with local building and permit regulations, standards and ordinances. Within five (5) days of acceptance Seller must notify the appropriate local agency to cause the property to be inspected at the earliest practicable date. If Seller is unable or unwilling to pay for corrections required, this agreement shall terminate and all deposits be returned to Buyer, unless Buyer agrees to pay the cost of corrections required.

F. PEST CONTROL INSPECTION. To be paid by ☐ Buyer ☒ Seller. A licensed structural pest control operator will inspect the main building and all attached structures. The Seller must pay for (1) Elimination of infestation and/or infection of wood-destroying pests or organisms; (2) repairing the damage caused by aforementioned infestation and/or infection; (3) rectifying the conditions which caused aforementioned damage; and (4) repair of plumbing leaks and other leaks affecting wood members, including the repair of leaky shower stalls, in accordance with aforementioned structural pest control operator's report. Seller will not be responsible for preventive work where no damage is found, except where required for FHA or VA financing.

If the inspecting structural pest control operator should recommend further inspection of inaccessible areas, Buyer may require that said areas be inspected. If no such infestation or infection is discovered, the additional cost of inspecting such inaccessible areas and the work required to return the property to its original condition must be paid by Buyer. If any infestation or infection is discovered by such inspection, the additional cost of such inspection, and additional required work must be paid by Seller.

Funds for work required in accordance of said at Seller's expense will be held in escrow and disbursed by escrow holder upon receipt of Notice of Work Completed by a licensed structural pest control operator selected by Seller certifying that the property is free of evidence of active infestation or infection.

As soon as copies of the report are available, and any certificate or other proof of completion of the work is delivered to the agents of Buyer and Seller who are authorized to receive the same on behalf of their principals.

G. EXISTING PEST CONTROL REPORT ACCEPTED BY BUYER. Buyer accepts existing pest control report on the property by the licensed structural pest control operator listed below. Seller's obligations shall be as set forth in Item 15-F above.

Report dated N/A By N/A
H. WAIVER OF PEST CONTROL INSPECTION. Buyer is satisfied about the condition of the property described on the front of this form and agrees to purchase the property in its present condition without the performance of a structural pest control inspection.

NOTICE OF LAWSUIT AND REQUEST FOR WAIVER OF SERVICE OF SUMMONS

TO: LAWRENCE ALESSIO, Esq
2550 Fifth Ave #710 - - San Diego, CA 92103
as Attorney of GOEPPINGER-CURRAN et al

A lawsuit has been commenced against you (or the entity on whose behalf you are addressed).
A copy of the complaint is attached to this notice. It has been filed in the United States District Court for the SOUTHERN District of CALIFORNIA and has been assigned docket number

This is not a formal summons or notification from the court, but rather my request that you sign and return the enclosed waiver of service in order to save the cost of serving you with a judicial summons and an additional copy of the complaint. The cost of service will be avoided if I receive a signed copy of the waiver within five (5) days after the date designated below as the date on which this Notice and Request is sent. I enclose a stamped and addressed envelope (or other means of cost-free return) for your use. An extra copy of the waiver is also attached for your records.

If you comply with this request and return the signed waiver, it will be filed with the court and no summons will be served on you. The action will then proceed as if you had been served on the date the waiver is filed, except that you will not be obligated to answer the complaint before 60 days from the date designated below as the date on which this notice is sent (or before 90 days from the date if your address is not in any judicial district of the United States).

If you do not return the signed waiver within the time indicated, I will take appropriate steps to effect formal service in a manner authorized by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and will then, to the extent authorized by those Rules, ask the court to require you (or the party on whose behalf you are addressed) to pay the full costs of such service. In that connection, please read the statement concerning the duty of parties to waive the service of the summons, which is set forth at the foot of the waiver form.

I affirm that this request is being sent to you on behalf of the plaintiff this 29th day of May, 2008.

WAIVER OF SERVICE OF SUMMONS

TO: LAWRENCE ALESSIO, 2550 Fifth Ave #710, San Diego, CA 92103
(NAME OF PLAINTIFF'S ATTORNEY OR UNREPRESENTED PLAINTIFF)

I, acknowledge receipt of your request that I waive service of a summons in the action of ASHFORD v GOEPPINGER et al., which is case number in the United States District Court for the SOUTHERN District of CALIFORNIA

I have also received a copy of the complaint in the action, two copies of this instrument, and a means by which I can return the signed waiver to you without cost to me.

I agree to save the cost of service of a summons and an additional copy of the complaint in this lawsuit by not requiring that I (or the entity on whose behalf I am acting) be served with judicial process in the manner provided by Rule 4.

I (or the entity on whose behalf I am acting) will retain all defenses or objections to the lawsuit or to the jurisdiction or venue of the court except for objections based on a defect in the summons or in the service of the summons.

I understand that a judgment may be entered against me (or the party on whose behalf I am acting) if an answer or motion under Rule 12 is not served upon you within 60 days after

May 29, 2008 , or within 90 days after that date if the request was sent outside the (DATE REQUEST WAS SENT)
United States.

Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendant located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff located in the United States to waive service of a summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the complaint is unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the summons or to the service of the summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

A defendant who waives service must within the time specified on the waiver form serve on the plaintiff's attorney (or unrepresented plaintiff) a response to the complaint and must also file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer or motion is not served within this time, a default judgment may be taken against that defendant. By waiving service, a defendant is allowed more time to answer than if the summons had been actually served when the request for waiver of service was received.
